High quality support

The HA is the national subject association for history and has supported history teachers for over 115 years, offering trustworthy teaching insight, subject knowledge, pedagogical resources and more.

Community

Gain unparalleled access to a rich subject community of thousands of history practitioners sharing best practice. It's a network of support you can come back to time and again.

Practical advice

Tailored to support your first steps: from What's the Wisdom On articles and training films, to our 'beginning teacher' online units.

Affordable professional development

Enjoy free or discounted access to a range of CPD opportunities; from webinars and online courses to forums and HA Annual Conference.

Strong subject knowledge

Drawing on the best international expertise and academic historians, we offer a range of support to consolidate your subject knowledge, from podcasts and webinars to local and Virtual Branch talks and reading lists.

Supporting career progression

Through our CPD courses and Chartered Teacher programmes, membership forges a development path from ITT and ECT through to subject leadership.
